The Colony of Queensland comprises the north-eastern portion of the Continent of Australia—its northern extremity is Cape York, and its southern (on the coast) Point Danger. The one hundred and thirty-eighth degree of longitude is its boundary on the west.

The Area of the Colony is 668,497 square miles, and its seaboard extends 2,250 miles.

The Colony is divided into sixty-one Electorates, fifty Districts each returning one member, and eleven Districts each returning two members. It has thirty Municipal Boroughs, six Municipal Shires, and about two hundred small Towns or Townships. There are also Divisional Boards charged with the construction and maintenance of public highways and other necessary public works within their Divisions.

From the returns of the Census of 1891, it appears that, out of the entire population, 205,307 are Australasian born (of whom 176,971 were born in the Colony); 77,187 were born in England and Wales, 43,036 in Ireland, 22,400 in Scotland, and 14,910 in Germany.

There were only 3,900 persons returned as suffering from sickness and accident, being at the rate of 9·91 in every 1,000 persons.

The following are the rates of increase during the intervals between each Census:—

[a] Excess of departures over arrivals.

[†] Since 1866, increasing areas of land have been alienated by private sale or selection. The aggregate area and amount received for land alienated in fee-simple to the end of 1883 was 6,911,577 acres; £4,518,224.

[] The numbers of letters and newspapers have been revised to correspond with an amended Return furnished by the Postal Department.

[$] The figures from 1866 include telegrams sent and received; previous to that year no record was kept of messages received from places beyond the Colony.

[¶] From 1883 number and tonnage of vessels calling at more than one port in Queensland during same voyage only counted once.

[††] The total yield of gold to end of 1877 has been estimated by the Mines Department at 2,646,916 oz., which is 999,905 oz. more than the quantity shown as sent by escort during the same period: the amount sent by escort was always known to be short of the actual production, and the discrepancy increased as railways to the interior were completed, but prior to 1878 there were no other means of forming an estimate.

[§] Now divided into White, Yellow, Ration.

Provided nevertheless that the Commissioners or a Deputy Commissioner may, in their or his discretion, instead of instituting proceedings for the recovery of the penalty, demand and receive the amount thereof or such reduced amount as they or he may think fit, from the person liable to pay the same.

Every public officer having in his custody any books, records, papers, documents, or proceedings, the inspection whereof may tend to secure any duty or prove or lead to the discovery of any fraud or omission in relation to any duty, shall at all reasonable times permit any person thereto authorised by the Commissioners to inspect the books, records, papers, documents, and proceedings, and to take such notes and extracts as he may deem necessary, without fee or reward, and in case of refusal shall for every offence incur a penalty not exceeding £10.

If any person whose office it is to register or enter in or upon any books or records any instrument chargeable with duty, enrols, registers, or enters any such instrument, not being duly stamped, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding £50.

(2.) Provided that if any bill of exchange payable on demand or at sight, or on presentation, is presented for payment unstamped, the person to whom it is presented may affix thereto an adhesive stamp of one penny, and cancel the same, as if he had been the drawer of the bill, and may thereupon pay the sum in the bill mentioned, and charge the duty in account against the person by whom the bill was drawn, or deduct the duty from the said sum, and the bill is, so far as respects the duty, to be deemed valid and available.

(3.) But the foregoing proviso is not to relieve any person from any penalty incurred by him in relation to such bill.

Every person who—

(1) Receives or takes credit for any premium or consideration for any insurance, or does not, within three months after receiving or taking credit for the premium or consideration, make out and execute a duly stamped policy of insurance, unless the premium or consideration so paid shall in the meantime have been returned to the person paying the same; or shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £100.

(1) The duties imposed by this Act upon policies of insurance may be denoted by adhesive stamps, or partly by adhesive and partly by impressed stamps.

(2.) When the whole or any part of the duty upon a policy of insurance is denoted by an adhesive stamp, such adhesive stamp is to be cancelled by the person by whom the policy is first executed.

(3.) In default of such cancellation, the person issuing such policy shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Note.—The amount actually realised bears but a small proportion to the amount sought to be recovered; but it must be borne in mind that in many cases the defendant, on a levy being made, becomes insolvent, and any property seized passes to the Official Trustee for the benefit of the Creditors, and consequently no sale by the Sheriff takes place. Many also of these writs of fieri facias were for large amounts, the suitors holding mortgages over and being in possession of the property seized, and were merely lodged for the purpose of obtaining the Sheriff's title for the conveyance of the interest, the purchase money being nominal.
